

NEW PARISH HONORS FOR CLERGY AND LAIETY OF NEW YORK

Cardinal Farley Announces Four New Monsignori and Elevation of Mgr. Burtzell.

TWO LAYMEN MADE
KNIGHTS OF ST. GREGORY

Fathers Lings, Kean, Corley and Mc-Nichol Are Now Entitled to Wear the Purple.

MISS ISELIN A COUNTESS

Major General John F. O'Rourke and Mr. John B. Manning Are Made
Knights of St. Gregory.

Cardinal Farley yesterday announced more honors from the Pope which he was commissioned to bring from Rome for members of the clergy and laity in this diocese.

A new honor fell to the lot of Mr.
Richard L. Burtzell, pastor of St. Mary's Church, Rondout, N. Y. He received the title of domestic prelate. The other domestic prelate in this diocese is Mr.
M. J. Lavelle. They are chamberlains of the Church.

Priests who were elevated to monsignori were the Very Rev. Dean A. A.
Lings, pastor of St. Joseph's Church, Yonkers; the Rev. John M. Corley, pastor of the Church of the Blessed Sacrament in this city; the Rev. Charles R.
Corley, pastor of the Church of the Immaculate Conception, Yonkers; and the Rev. Francis P. McNeil, pastor of St.
Catherine's Church, Pelham. With Mr.
Dunn, Mgr. Ferrante and Mgr. Cassidy, whose elevation was announced in the HERALD yesterday, the diocese now has seven new monsignori.

Two new members of the Order of Knights of St. Gregory the Great are John F. O'Rourke, Major General
John B. Manning and Major General John F. O'Rourke. Mr. Manning is a banker and long has been prominent in affairs of the diocese. Mr. O'Rourke is a warm personal friend of Cardinal Farley.

Friends of Miss George Iselin said that the notification by Cardinal Farley that she had been made a countess of the church by the Pope came as a great surprise to her. She lives in the family residence at New Rochelle in summer, and in the winter at Fifty-seventh street and Park avenue. She is a daughter of the late William Iselin.

During the morning yesterday Cardinal Farley entertained at his residence Captain Harassowitz, commander of the Berlin, on board which the Cardinal returned.
Others present were Bishop Gabriels, of Cincinnati, and Mgr. Mooney, Mgr. Leville, Mgr. Edwards, Mgr. Hayes and Mgr. Lewis, secretary to the Cardinal.
Later the Cardinal and Mgrs. Mooney, Lavelle and Edwards held a long conference in regard to affairs of the diocese.
Priests from all parts of the diocese and many outside of it called to pay their respects to the Cardinal. The Cardinal had a few words of advice and greeting for each.

Cardinal Farley rises every morning at seven o'clock, says mass in his chapel at seven o'clock and reads the newspapers until nine o'clock. He is occupied with business matters until noon, has luncheon at one o'clock, receives callers at half-past two o'clock, has supper at six o'clock and retires about nine o'clock. He usually walks before luncheon and after supper.

There will be no tickets of admission for the mass meeting at the Hippodrome to-morrow night. The meeting is to be under the auspices of the New York Federation of Catholic Societies. Tickets, however, will be required for the platform and box seats.
Mr. Frank W. Smith, president of the federation, will introduce the chairman, Senator James A. O'Gorman. After four speeches Cardinal Farley will speak. The speakers and their subjects will be: Justice John J. Delany, "The Rev. John M.
Farley, Priest;" Mr. Michael J. Mulqueen, president of the Catholic Club, "The Rt.
Rev. John M. Farley, Bishop;" Mr. John G.
Agar, "The Most Rev. John M. Farley, Archbishop;" and Mr. W. Bourke Cockran, "His Eminence, John Cardinal Farley."

At the celebration next Thursday morning at eleven o'clock in St. Patrick's Cathedral admission will be by ticket only.
The cathedral is being decorated for the occasion. About the walls there is scarlet velvet four feet deep, with gold fringe.
Between all the pillars are papal shields, and garlands of evergreen festoon every arch. Arrangements are almost completed for the reception Thursday evening at the Catholic Club. Many prominent men from all over the country have accepted invitations. The non-Catholic dinner to Cardinal Farley will take place at the Waldorf this month. Mr. J. M. Metz is chairman and Dr. Edwin Zimmerman is secretary of the committee in charge.

JEWISH NOTES.

"Judaism, Catholicism and Protestantism: How Can They Benefit Humanity?" will be the subject of Rabbi Joseph Silverman in Temple Emanuel to-morrow morning.

Rabbi Samuel Schulman will preach on "The Jewish Philosophy of Life" in Temple Beth-El to-morrow morning. The subject will be "The Jewish Pension Widowed Mothers" will be the question discussed by Rabbi Stephen S. Wise before the Free Synagogue to-morrow morning in Carnegie Hall.

"The Home Beautiful" will be described by Rabbi Rudolph Grossman this morning at Temple Rodolph Scholom.

Rabbi Maurice H. Harris will preach this morning in Temple Israel, of the subject "The Human Aspect of Israel's Redemption."

Under the auspices of the Jewish Endeavor Society of Harlem the first of a series of lectures on Jewish subjects of popular interest will be given to-morrow night at Lenox Hall, Lenox avenue and 121st street. The speaker will be Dr. Elias L. Solomon, and his subject will be "Practical Judaism." Lectures will be given the first and third Sunday evenings of each month.

Dr. Ben Zion Mosselsohn, of Jaffa, Palestine, will speak Monday evening in Cooper Union on "Jewish Education in Palestine."

Church Income Sets New Record

The Rev. Dr. Grant Announces That Church of the Ascension Received $125,000 Last Year.

In the twenty years of its history the Episcopal Church of the Ascension, Fifth avenue and Tenth street, never had so successful a year from a financial standpoint as the one just ended. The income of the parish last year was $125,000.

The year just closed also was the eighteenth anniversary of the free seat system and the rectorship of the Rev. Percy S.
Grant, who made that the leading condition when he came here from Fall River, Mass. This church is the oldest place of worship in Fifth avenue. When it was built it was in a meadow and a boardwalk ran from Fifth avenue to Broadway. Now the fine old edifice is surrounded by skyscrapers.

MEMORIAL TO DR. RICHARDS.

Tablet To Be Unveiled in Brick Presbyterian Church To-morrow.

At the Brick Presbyterian Church tomorrow afternoon there will be unveiled a tablet to the memory of the Rev. Dr.
William R. Richards, pastor of the church for eight years, who died two years ago.
The principal address will be by Robert PERCY S. GRANT, rector of the Church of the Ascension.

E. Speer, a secretary of the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions, who was a close friend of Dr. Richards. There also will be a talk by the Rev. Dr. William P.
Merrill, the successor of Dr. Richards.
The tablet was designed by Mr. J. Cleveland Cady. Mr. Cady is an elder in the Brick Church and was one of Dr. Richards' devoted friends.

WILL ADVERTISE TO AIR CHRONES

Big Fund Being Raised by Presbyterians for Publicity Campaign in Interest of Missions.

With direct, traceable returns of 600 per cent from a newspaper advertising campaign, the United Presbyterian denomination has decided to form a publicity campaign as a part of its methods of raising money for mission work.

Other denominations have taken up the subject, one interdenominational official group planning to spend $50,000 within six months in newspaper advertising. Another group of business men interested in foreign missions decided to devote another $50,000 to a year's propaganda of this phase of church work. At the same time, in connection with the Men and Religion Congress in Washington next April, a Publicity Commission, on which are experts in newspaper advertising as well as in missionary work, and the need of them on the subject of the whole subject of the church and the newspapers.

The story of the United Presbyterian advertising campaign, which has aroused much interest in and out of the denomination, links up with an incident of human interest. Last spring there were seven college and seminary trained young men ready to go to the foreign mission field.
The Board had no funds, only a deficit, and they were obliged to reject them. The life purposes of the seven seemed thwarted.
A Philadelphia business man, Mr. Shane, head of a large four concern, took up the advertising of the case and helped them with his own money. He is known as a skilled advertiser in business, although this work was done anonymously, or under the pseudonym of "George Christopher." He used whole pages and double pages and a time. He printed pictures of the seven—once, under the caption, "All Upset," in inverted position scattered over two pages. The upset plans of the young men, and the loss to the denomination, and the need of them on the mission field were discussed graphically.

Then came a "Going! Going!" advertisement; a "last appearance" and the work was done. More than that, the advertisers—a few other men, having gone with Mr. Shane, all of them having already devoted a tenth of their income to religious purposes, taking this as an extra—desired to arouse the Board They used diagrams, figures, cartoons and clear cut arguments. The advertising got the results and shook up the conservative United Presbyterian denomination as nothing else has done for a generation.
Out of this successful campaign in the United Presbyterian papers has grown a wide interest in the subject of advertising for religious purposes. The results are being followed up by the Board. The question, Individual Christian enterprises are going in for vigorous, modern advertising.

Most noted of all is the plan of a group of laymen, with Mr. Shane at their head, to spend $50,000 in a year's display advertising of missions in secular publications.
They expect to arrest the attention of the nation by an advertising presentation of foreign missions, especially in its humanitarian aspects.

Many interested churchmen, this will necessitate follow up advertisements of a more definite nature by each of the mission boards. The money that is now spent in leaflets, circulars and letters is being turned into a large part to advertising in the press.

The allied home mission boards of the United States have been in conference in New York over a definite plan for spending $50,000 in a short term publicity campaign this year. This project, even more than the magazine campaign for foreign missions will put the official stamp of the united denominations of the land upon newspaper advertising, say men leading in the movement.

MUSICAL NOTES.

At old St. Paul's Episcopal Chapel next Thursday noon, which is the feast of the conversion of St. Paul, the patron saint of the chapel, the festival cantata "Gloria Domini," by T. Tertius Noble, will be sung under direction of Edmund Jaques, musical director. Dr. Carl Duff will be the soloist.

"The Twenty-third Psalm," by Parker, will be heard at St. Bartholomew's Episcopal Church to-morrow afternoon.
The third of a series of free organ recitals will be given in the "Old" First Presbyterian Church, Monday evening. Mr.
Clarence Albert Tuttle will be at the organ.
Handel's "Messiah" will be sung by the choir of the Episcopal Church of the Ascension to-morrow afternoon at four o'clock under the direction of Richard

The twelfth recital this season of the American Guild of Organists will be given in St. Luke's Episcopal Church Thursday evening by Miss Kate Elizabeth Fox.

Invites Chinese to Sunday School.
At the request of the Rev. Dr. William Montague Greer, the vicar, there has been placed in front of old St. Paul's Church, Trinity parish, Broadway and Fulton street, a sign lettered in Chinese inviting also that nationality to attend the Chinese Sunday school there.

PERSONAL NEWS OF CHURCH WORKERS

Washington Heights Baptists Hold a Reception for the Rev. and Mrs.
Harold Pattison.

For the Rev. Harold Pattison, new pastor of Washington Heights Baptist Church, and his wife a reception was given Thursday evening in the church parlors. Among the neighboring pastors who made addresses of welcome were the Rev. Drs. J.
Herman Randall, Edward S. Halloway, John R. Mackay and Thomas W. Smith.

Mr. John D. Rockefeller gave $40,000 of the $200,000 raised for the Aged and Infirm Baptist Ministers' Fund.

Under the auspices of the Northfield Extension Movement the Rev. J. Stuart Holden, rector of St. Paul's Church, Port-man square, London, will visit America this spring. He has been heard at St.
Bartholomew's Episcopal Church, this city.

This Rev. Dr. James M. Gray, dean of the Moody Bible Institute, Chicago, will depart from New York soon for England.
He will give a series of Bible conferences in London which have been planned by the Rev. Dr. F. B. Meyer and the Rev.
J. Stuart Holden, of that city.

While in Rome Mr. James V. Lewis, secretary to Cardinal Farley, received from the Cardinal a hand-made cassock.
He wore this at the welcome service in St.
Patrick's Cathedral last Wednesday afternoon.

If Ascension Memorial Episcopal Church, in West Forty-third street, is to merge with St. Mary's Church, in West 127th street, which plan is under consideration, the Rev. John F. Steen, rector of St. Mary's for more than forty years, will become rector of the consolidated congregation.

The resignation of the Rev. Guy Arthur Jamieson from St. Stephen's Church, received by the Rev. John F. Steen, rector of St. Mary's for more than forty years, will become rector of the consolidated congregation.

The Rev. John C. Palmer, of Emanuel Presbyterian Chapel, has been appointed moderator of the session of the Presbyterian Church of the Puritans until it calls a new pastor or unites with the New York Presbyterian Church.

The Rev. Charles S. Macfarland, who for the last eight months has been executive secretary of the commission on the service of the Federal Council of the Churches in America, has been made acting executive secretary of the council and will remain in charge of the service work. The Rev. Dr. E. B.
Sanford, the father of church federation in the United States, will continue as corresponding secretary. The national office is in the Clarendon Building, this city.

John Hollis, superintendent of the Mission of the Living Water, has obtained six months' leave of absence and has gone to Chicago, where he will enter the Moody Bible Institute. William McQuere will direct the work during Mr. Hollis' absence.
Bishop Thomas B. Neely, of the Methodist Church, has gone on a tour of the Conferences of that denomination in Mexico. Mrs. Neely is with him.

Intensely interesting is the new novel written especially for the SUNDAY NEW YORK HERALD by that great writer of sea stories, Joseph Conrad. It is called
"Chance." First instalment to-morrow.

MINISTERS' MEETINGS.

For the Rev. Dr. Reginald J. Campbell, pastor of the City Temple, London, who will depart next week for England, a luncheon will be given by the Clerical Conference of the Federation of Churches Monday at noon in the private dining room of the Fifth Avenue Restaurant, No. 200 Fifth avenue. In his three months' preaching and lecturing tour in this country Dr. Campbell has been as far west as the Pacific.

Dr. Thomas Darlington, formerly Health Commissioner, will address the Methodist Preachers' Meeting at No. 150 Fifth avenue Monday morning on "Abolishment of Sunday Labor in the Iron and Steel Industry." At the Presbyterian Ministers' Association, Monday noon, at No. 156 Fifth avenue, Professor Harry Allen Overstreet, of the College of the City of New York, will discuss "Some Fundamental Tendencies of Modern Philosophy."

"Actions as Christian Evidence" will be the topic of the Rev. Dr. C. H. Tyndall Monday morning at the meeting of the Reformed Pastors' Association, No. 25 East Twenty-second street.

CLERGY AND LAIETY CHURCH SERVICES FOR COMING WEEK

Roman Catholics Greet Cardinal Farley and Episcopalians Plan to Honor Bishop Greer.

New York churches are absorbed in the activities of the winter season. Roman Catholics are discussing little else than the return of Cardinal Farley and the climax next Thursday of his welcome home. That day is the Feast of the Conversion of St. Paul.

Episcopalians of this diocese are engaged in preparing for next Thursday, which will mark the eighth anniversary of the consecration of Bishop David H.
Greer. For four and a half years he has conducted the affairs of the diocese. Dr.
Greer never has observed the anniversary of his consecration by calling the clergy together. But this year his friends have taken that step. The Episcopal Church Club will hold its annual dinner next Thursday evening at the Hotel Knickerbocker. The speakers will be Bishop Greer and prominent laymen.

Another interesting event in Episcopal circles will be the third annual service of St.
Vincent's Guild next Wednesday evening in the Church of St. Mary the Virgin. It is expected 100 priests and 250 acolytes will take part in the procession. The service will consist of evening prayer and a sermon by the Rev. Dr. John McKelridge, vicar of Trinity Chapel. The music will be by the combined orchestra and choir of the parish. Clergy and acolytes from South Jersey, Newark, Long Island and this city have been invited. Supper will be served.

Many Methodist churches are devoting the first month of the new year to special nightly revival meetings. The attendance has been large at Grace Church, where the Rev. Dr. Christian F. Reiser speaks, and at Calvary Church, where the Rev.
Dr. Charles L. Goodell long has been making conversions. Next Thursday in the Methodist calendar will be a special day of prayer for colleges.

Women of the Reformed Church will gather Monday in Marble Collegiate Church for the birthday celebration of the Woman's Board of Foreign Missions.
Mrs. Abbey Snell Burnell will give a representation of "Chundra Lela," the Hindu priestess. This will be followed with a social. Among the missionaries who will take part will be Mrs. Samuel M. Zwemer, of Arabia, and Mrs. L. B. Chamberlain, of India. Presbyterians are asked by the United Board of Christian Missions to pray this month especially for China. A week from to-morrow will be National Child Labor Sunday.

The Federated Council of the Protestant States and Canada has elected to call upon the American Protestant church to celebrate the centenary of David Livingston, March 13, 1913, by a great missionary celebration throughout the English speaking world.

VISITORS IN PULPITS OF NEW YORK CITY

Mr. Henry Clews will speak at the Peoples' Forum of the Pilgrim Congregational Church to-morrow night after evening worship. His subject will be "Wall Street and the Stock Exchange."

The Rev. Dr. Reginald John Campbell, of the City Temple, London, who has been on a lecture tour of this country for the last few months, will preach to-morrow morning and evening in the Fifth Avenue Baptist Church. Under auspices of the Federation of Churches Dr. Campbell will preach in old John Street Methodist Church Monday afternoon at a quarter past three. Monday evening he will preach in Calvary Methodist Church, where a month's series of revival meetings are in progress.

Mr. Walter M. Chandler will begin tomorrow night a series of five lectures in Harlem Presbyterian Church on "The Jew, a Tribute and a Study, by a Gentleman."

The Rev. Bernard Vaughan, of London, will preach to-morrow morning at high mass in the Church of St. Ignace Loyola, his subject being "Christ's Love in the Valley of the Shadow."

A novena will take place in St. Leo's Catholic Church, East Twenty-eighth street, near Fifth avenue, from next Thursday to February 2. There will be a sermon every afternoon at half-past four o'clock, followed by benediction.

The Gileads or Christian Commercial Travelers, will have charge of the service to-morrow night in Alexander Avenue Baptist Church.

The third of a series of union services of the Free Synagogue, the Unitarian Church of the Messiah and the Universalist Church of the Divine Paternity will be held in the Divine Paternity Church tomorrow night. The Rev. Dr. Washington Gladden, of Columbus, Ohio, will speak on "The Evolution of Social Justice."

The Rev. Frank Eckerson, a missionary in Amoy, China, will preach to-morrow morning in the Reform Church of Harlem, Lenox avenue and 124th street, on "The Problem of Indifference."

Mr. William H. Friday will be the speaker at the Florence Mission, No. 21 Bleeker street, to-morrow evening, and at the Methodist Church, No. 62 West Twenty-ninth street, Monday evening.

Bishop Franklin Spencer Spaulding, of Utah, will preach to-morrow evening in Grace Episcopal Church.

Intensely interesting is the new novel
written especially for the SUNDAY NEW YORK HERALD by that great writer of
sea stories, Joseph Conrad. It is called
"Chance." First instalment to-morrow.

TELLS OF COLUMBUS SEEING CANAL SIGHT

Place Where the Atlantic Will Roll Into Big Ditch Was Viewed by the Discoverer.

It is a strange thing that Columbus, who was not looking for America at all but for the shortest road to India and Japan, should have caught his first glimpse of the American continent at the very spot where we are now digging the Panama Canal.
Of course, says St. Nicholas, he had already seen the islands of the West Indies, for this was his fourth and last voyage across the great "sea of darkness," and now arose before the prow of his caravels the cloudy peaks of the San Blas Mountains, and his feet anchored in that harbor which is called Limon Bay, but which Columbus called "Naon," or the Bay of Ships.
There today is the Atlantic entrance to the canal, beside the city of Colon, as the Spaniards called Columbus.

SERVICES IN CITY CHURCHES

New Vicar Makes Church Seats Free

The Rev. C. N. Moller Announces Important Innovations at St.
Chrysostom's Chapel.

Since the Rev. C. N. Moller became vicar of St. Chrysostom's chapel, Trinity parish, Seventh avenue and Thirty-ninth street, two months ago, he has made many innovations on approval of the Rev. Dr. William T. Manning, rector of Trinity. He has announced that all seats are free. He also has increased the number of Sunday services and has erected signboards in front of the edifice telling the time of Sunday and week day services. There is now in the making an electric cross which will be hung directly over the middle door. It will be much like that at Calvary Episcopal Church, Fourth avenue and Twenty-first street. The Rev. Mr. Moller wants to reach out and draw the great masses from the sidewalk.

The new vicar has the usual early morning Communion services and preaching services at eleven in the morning, four o'clock in the afternoon and eight o'clock in the evening. In addition there is an Armenian congregation that uses the church auditorium for worship every Sunday at half-past one o'clock. To-morrow will be the Armenians' Christmas celebration. The late Rev. Dr. Morgan Dix invited the St. Agnes' Chapel, of Trinity Parish, will give a reception to the vicar, the Rev.

Dr. William V. Bellinger, and Mrs. Bellinger in the parish house on the evening of January 31 in honor of the twenty-fifth anniversary of their wedding. To this besides all the parishioners, the clergy and vestrymen of Trinity Parish, with their wives, will be invited. Mrs. Vernon M.
Davis, whose husband, Justice Davis, is a member of Trinity Corporation, is in charge.

A few intimate friends of the vicar and his wife presented them with a solid silver tea service and tray.

LIVE TOPICS IN RELIGIOUS FIELDS

"Protestantism, What Is It?" will be the theme of the Rev. Dr. David U.
Burrell in the Marble Collegiate Reformed Church to-morrow morning.

"The Mystery of the Jew" will be the topic of the Rev. Dr. Thomas W. Smith to-morrow morning in St. Nicholas Avenue Presbyterian Church.

The newly organized Central Church, Disciples of Christ, No. 142 West Eighty-first street, will keep its charter membership list open until February 1. The first business meeting of the new corporation will be held January 21, when trustees, elders and deacons will be elected. The new church has a Bible class for adult Chinese which meets every Sunday afternoon.

"Swedenborg's Heaven" will be the subject of a sermon by the Rev. Dr. George P. Eckman to-morrow evening in St. Paul's Methodist Church.

The Rev. Dr. A. Edwin Kelgwin in West End Presbyterian Church to-morrow night will discuss "Is It Possible that the Dead Can Come Back and Correct the Mistakes Made During Life?"

"Modern Idolatry" will be the topic of the Rev. Dr. John Haynes Holmes in the Church of the Messiah to-morrow morning, this being the second of a series of sermons on "The Ten Commandments in the Twentieth Century."

Dr. Lyman B. Sperry will speak on "Sex, Health and Success" to-morrow afternoon in the West Twenty-third Street Y.M.C.A.

The Rev. Dr. John Wesley Hill will speak on "Observations and Experiences in China" as a prelude to his sermon tomorrow night.

The Rev. Dr. Zachary T. Sweeney, the new pastor of the Lenox Avenue Unitarian Church, will preach to-morrow morning on
"Aristocracy in State and Church" and to-morrow night on "The Philosophy of Getting Religion."

in China" as a prelude to his sermon tomorrow night.

The Rev. Dr. Zachary T. Sweeney, the
new pastor of the Lenox Avenue Unitarian Church, will preach to-morrow morning on
"Aristocracy in State and Church" and to-morrow night on "The Philosophy of Getting Religion."

A new platform has been erected in Grace Methodist Church, so that the choir is now seated back of the pastor, the Rev. Dr. Christian F. Reiser.
The whole church will be redecorated, recarpeted and reset.

"Luther the Protestant" will be the subject of the Rev. Archy Deatour Bal tomorrow night at St. James' Methodist Church.

Irritated Man Makes This Statement to Young Women Who Wanted Information About a Word.

Thomas M. Honan, Attorney General of Indiana, who has given more attention to studying law than to studying spelling, finds solace for misspelled words in a saying of an old time newspaper man at Seymour, Mr. Honan's home.

"One day," says the Indianapolis News, "two young women went to his office to write a letter." Mr. Honan said. "They borrowed the newspaper, his pen and his ink, and asked him to let them sit at his desk while they wrote the letter. The man accommodated them, and while they were asked anybody how to spell a word, and we have to like the way he spelled em."
